

Determining the copyright term of works

The below sets out the general rules for determining copyright in literary, musical, dramatic or artistic works as of 1 January 2019. However, some older works, such as photographs, may fall outside these rules because of previous changes to copyright law. For a complete set of copyright term rules, see fact sheets at http://libcopyright.org.au.

* Important: A work is "made public" when it is communicated (eg posted online), published, or performed in public with the author's permission. Material that has simply been loaned, or has been shared illegally or under an exception (eg document delivery or s200AB) has not been "made public".

This guide and all material contained in it are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 licence. Please share, reproduce and adapt it, but attribute the Australian Library Copyright Committee as the original source